Final Things Class Estate Planning

Wednesday / November 15 / 6:30 p.m.

Without a plan, you run the risk of having the court decide how your assets will be settled and your loved ones will be provided for. Join us for the second of three classes and learn more about estate planning and being prepared for providing for loved ones, avoiding probate, minimizing taxes, providing for the distribution and protection of assets, and planning for incapacity.

Estate Planning is so important and something we need to prepare for.
